Public Form a Delusion to Big Crowd at Aqueduct.

New York, April 23.-Summer weather and a good card served to draw more than 10,000 people to the Aqueduct track to-day, but public form was a delusion and a snare, as five of the first choices were defeated. The stake feature was the Canarsie for two-year-olds, which proved to be easy for High Private, a gelding, who was backed from 40 to 12. He broke away from the barrier like a streak of lightning, and setting a fast pace, he stood the Ed others on their heads, winning in a gal-bert, 6 to 5 favorite, who was off poorly, closed a big gap and raced into the place four lengths before Uncle Jim. R. F. Carman's Col. Jack, 7 to 5 favorite, made all the running in the handicap at six and a half furlongs. Rialto had a mortgage on American Marksmen to Compete in

The steeplechase at about two miles was only a gallop for Colt's Percentage who led from start to finish and won easily by eight lengths. James R. Annual Cleaning Up of City Is Now in Progress.

Office of City Engineer Also Aiding in the Movement for Better Sanitary Conditions - Arrangements Made for Musical Entertainment at Christ Church Parish Hall.

> WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, (Bell Telephone 50.) (Bell Telephone 50.)

Alexandria, Va., April 23 .- An annual leaning up of the city in order to place it in a sanitary condition is now in progress, and will be greatly facilitated by the aid which will be given by the police department. The police are busily engaged in looking after nuisances and seeing that they are promptly abated. The work of removing ashes, dirt, and other rubbish comes under the supervision of the office of the city engineer, and the police assert that complaints left at that office will receive attention and will thereby aid the police department materially in the work.
